

The title of inscription: The inscription of silver cup (II-III AD)

The in situ condition of inscription, without filling and interpretation:

ΕΓΩΒΑΣΙΛΕΥΣΦΛΑΔΔΗCEΧΑΡΙCΑΜΗΝ ΒΕΡCΟΥΜΑΠΙΤΙΑΞΗ

The filled version of the Inscription:

Εγὼ βασιλεύς Φλ[αύιος] Δάδης ἐχαρισάμην Βερσουμᾷ πιτιάξη

The translation of the inscription in English:

Me, the king Flavius Dades have donated to Bersuma pitiakhshi (this cup). Under the Βερσουμᾷ there is carved (not so accurately) ΜΑΚΕΔΟΝΙ.

The interpretation of the Inscription:

The donation have made by the King Flavius Dades and has given it to Bersuma, so Bersuma is the owner. And “Makedoni” might be the second name of “Bersuma” or he is just other holder of the cup, after Bersuma.
